

Programme

Pharmacogenetics and Stratified Medicine

14 January 2015

Lectures to be held in the Kendrew Auditorium (EBI-South Building)

Oral Presentations

We request that all invited speakers provide an electronic version of their talk to our AV technician in the Kendrew Lecture Theatre, the morning of the conference.

14 January 2015

09:00-09:50 Registration

09:50-10:00 Walk from Wellcome Trust Conference Centre to EBI South Building

10:00-10:10 Welcome and Introduction
Munir Pirmohamed, University of Liverpool, UK

10:10-11:00 Session 1: The UK environment for stratified medicine

10:10 Jonathan Pearce, Medical Research Council, UK

10:20 Tony Soteriou, Department of Health, UK

10:30 Tim Hubbard, King's College London, UK

10:40 Precision Medicine – A Cancer Research UK Perspective
*Ian Walker,
Cancer Research, UK*

10:50 Alasdair Gaw, Innovate UK

11:00-11:30 Morning coffee

11:30-12:30 Session 2

11:30 Public perceptions of stratified medicine
*Joyce Tait
University of Edinburgh, UK*

12:00 Clinical trial design in stratified medicine – an example in colorectal cancer
*Tim Maughan
University of Oxford, UK*

12:30-13:30 Lunch

13:30-15:00 Session 3

13:30 Pharmacogenomics – recent advances
Ann Daly
Newcastle University, UK

14:00 Stratification in a rare disease
Tim Cox
University of Cambridge, UK

14:30 Stratification in rheumatoid arthritis
Anne Barton
The University of Manchester, UK

15:00-15:30 Afternoon tea

15:30-16:30 Session 4

15:30 Stratification in cancer medicine
Matthew Garnett
Wellcome Trust Sanger Institute, UK

16:00 Regulatory perspectives
Sir Gordon Duff
St Hilda's Oxford, UK

16:30-17:00 Panel discussion and close of conference.